JFK Praises Southerners in Race Trouble

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says he thinks "we are going about the right way" on racial integration and that he does not believe Americans will make the "fatal mistake" of dividing politically along racial lines.

He said the recent desegregation of schools in 150 Southern cities "is an impressive story" reflecting great credit on Southerners who put respect for the law above emotion.

The President gave these views Thursday in a news conference during which he also put in another strong plug for Senate ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty, announced he would address the United Nations next month, and defined U. S. policy in South Viet Nam.

Asked about a Gallup poll in which 50 per cent of those replying thought he was "pushing integration too fast," Kennedy said he thought the figure was accurate.

But he said he considered it "rather impressive" that another 40 per cent replied that the pace was "more or less right."

He said "change always disturbs, and, therefore, I was surprised that there wasn't greater opposition."

Bringing up the school desegregation subject in an opening statement, Kennedy had high praise for "the vast majority" of Southerners.

He noted that five federal judges who signed a school desegregation order in Alabama "were all from Alabama, all grew up in Alabama, and I am sure shared Continued on Page Four

Red-Tinged Students Who Visited Cuba Cause Riots at Hearing of Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of students who went to Cuba in defiance of a government ban staged another demonstration today at a House hearing, and four were forcibly ejected from the room.

Police carried two out bodily. The demonstrations began when Philip A. Luce, 26, of New York, who was in the witness chair, made some remarks about Negro voting in Louisiana and Virginia. There was applause from spectators.

"Okay, throw them out," Chairman Edwin E. Willis D-La., said, and police moved in on the leaders of the applause.

Another young man had been thrown out of the building earlier for haranguing police in the corridor outside the hearing room. A half dozen policemen carried the struggling screaming youth downstairs from the third floor. He was one of about 50 young people in beatnik clothes who milled around outside the room after being denied admission by police seeking to avert a renewal of Thursday's near-riots.

Others in the crowd stood silently and watched as police grabbed the noisy youth.

He was identified as William Massey, 28, tall blond New Yorker whose shouts inside the committee room late Thursday helped touch off the second of two small scale riots.

It was Massey who, after Thursday's hearing recessed, started shouting "Cuba is freer than Louisiana"—the home state of Edwin E. Willis, the committee chairman.

Police said today's struggle developed when Massey began asking them questions and haranguing the crowd outside the hearing room and refused to stop back. Then he was taken out, shouting all the way.

On the sidewalk outside the building, Massey said he was trying to find out who was in charge and why he was being denied admission to the hearing room.

Police had refused to admit to the hearing room anyone they regarded as a known troublemaker.

About 40 young men and women who had been kept out of the hearing went to the committee's offices on the floor below and sat down in the hall.

They tried to display hastily scrawled signs saying, "Why were we banned?" and "The Nazis are inside, why not us?" But police snatched the signs from their hands, telling them it was against the law to display such signs in the Capitol.

The committee is investigating the journey to Cuba this summer by some 50 young people, mostly students. The group made the trip as guests of Fidel Castro and in defiance of a State Department ban against travel to Cuba.

Inside the hearing room, things were not precisely orderly.

Screen Writer Who Turned to Novels Finds Self More Respected and Much Richer

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"I hate paternalism," said author Irving Wallace, whose books now sell like sardines in Norway.

"I don't want any big daddies around me. If you own 51 per cent of yourself, you've got a good deal—and you can be happy. But if you own only 50 per cent of yourself, you're in bad shape."

Back in 1958, his friends felt Irving was set for life. Beginning with a $5 sale to a turf periodical at the age of 15, he had turned out 500 magazine articles and short stories.

Fifteen of his movie scripts had been produced and he was on the payroll at $1,000 a week as a screen writer.

"But the money wasn't doing me any good, although it seemed awesome at the time," Wallace recalled. "It just brought me more frinks or a more expensive suit."

"Hollywood shakes your sense of values. And I felt like somebody was holding my arm whenever I wrote."

"I was tired of being treated like a mechanic or a literary carpenter. I was tired of writing scripts and magazine articles. I

Eastern Quebec Gets First Snow

QUEBEC, (AP) — Eastern Quebec got its first taste of winter Thursday — snow and winds of 50 miles an hour.

Three to six inches of snow fell in Laurentides Park to the north. Motorists reported snow to the west made driving hazardous for 80 miles along the north shore of the St. Lawrence River.

Col. Carl T. Schooley Dies in El Paso

Col. Carl T. Schooley

Colonel Carl T. Schooley, 48, a native of Arkansas, died early Friday at a U.S. Army Hospital in El Paso, Texas. He was commander of the 2d Air Defense Guided Missile Group at Fort Bliss, Texas.

A native of Nashville, Ark., he moved here with his family at the age of two and lived here until graduation from Ouachita College in 1937. At that time he went into the service through ROTC as a 2nd Lieutenant and has been in the service since.

He was a pioneer in the guided missile field. In 1945 he was a charter member of the first guided missile unit to be activated.

Col. Schooley was a graduate of the Infantry Advance Course, Artillery Advance Course, Command and General Staff College, Armed Forces Staff College and the Army War College. He held a Masters Degree in Guided Missile and Jet Propulsion awarded by the University of California.

During his period of service, he received numerous awards including the Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, Combat Infantryman's Badge, American Defense Medal, Army Occupation Medal, European Theater and American Theater medals, World War II Victory medal and the National Defense Medal.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kathleen Schooley, seven children, Tom, Tim, Jim, Ted, Frank, Mary and Margaret of El Paso; his mother, Mrs. J. E. Schooley of Hope; three sisters, Mrs. Thelma Moore of Hope, Mrs. Mary Belle Hausmann of Nicholson, Pa., Mrs. Madge Baskette of Dallas.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete. Internment will be at El Paso.

Indian Waging Rights War Too

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — While the nation's attention is focused on the battle for Negro civil rights, the native American Indian is waging his own independence struggle in reverse.

Unlike the Negro, who demands integration with the white man, the Indian is fighting to remain a separate and distinct race.

Where the Negro wants equality, the Indian asserts he is entitled to more than that—every advantage enjoyed by the whites, plus recognition as survivors of a once sovereign power.

War councils to obtain these aims met in Bismarck this past week, during the 20th annual convention of the National Congress of American Indians. The congress claims to represent some 400,000 of the estimated 600,000 Indians on reservations across the country.

Says Russia in Control of All Cuba

By OSCAR KAUFMANN

COZUMEL, Mexico (AP) — The leader of a band of refugees who escaped from Cuba last week in a hijacked navy tender said today that the Soviets now give the orders in his homeland.

"Our homeland is full of Russians," said Rafael Rodriguez, 48, a former Merchant Marine sailor who masterminded the flight of 89 Cubans, including 28 women and 22 children, to the Mexican island of Cozumel.

"The Russians are in a world apart, without contact with the Cuban people," Rodriguez told a reporter. "But it is they who dictate. That we cannot tolerate."

Rodriguez, who brought the refugees here after a perilous five-day voyage, said conditions were growing steadily worse in Cuba.

"The people suffer increasingly from hunger and privation," he said. "Most do not even have shoes."

"Invited foreigners who, with a big show, are shown Castro's Cuba are kept away from the Cuban people. No contact with them is permitted."

"The visitors are put up in the fancy hotels, to which the people have no access. When visiting groups are taken anywhere, the areas visited are first cleared of people."

"This was the case with the group of American students which visited Cuba recently at Fidel Castro's invitation."

Rodriguez estimated that 95 per cent of the Cuban people are non-Communists.

"If they had the opportunity, all of them would do what we did—leave our beloved island," he said. Recalling the escape voyage, Rodriguez said a Cuban navy torpedo boat trailed them for hours, but finally veered off, apparently deceived by a homemade American flag flying from the mast of the tender.

The refugees searched the skies and seas for days, hoping a U.S. plane or ship would appear and lead them to Florida. Because of short supplies they had to switch course the third night out and head for Mexico.

In Mexico City, a spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said that if the refugees apply for visas to the United States they would be given prompt consideration.

3 Texarkana Men Die in Plane Crash

BRYAN, Tex. (AP) — Three persons from the Arkansas-Texas border city of Texarkana died Thursday night in the crash of their private plane only moments from a safe landing at the airport here.

The craft crashed during a rain apparently shortly after asking directions.

Justice of the Peace Jess McGee identified three victims as Dr. Charles V. Binliff, 45; George P. Barlow, 28; and Dr. John E. Gill, 37.

The plane was found by a search aircraft about daylight south of the field. Ground searchers had slogged through mud most of the night searching for the craft.

An airport official said the pilot was about two miles south of the field when he asked directions to land.

"First we had communications with the craft, then we didn't," the airport man said.

Slippery travel caused the search to go slowly. National Guard jeeps were the only vehicles able to move in the area, which was torn up from war games of Texas A&M cadets.

Agreement Reached at High Point

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP) — Negro leaders have agreed to suspend mass demonstrations and most picketing in exchange for a pledge of firmer action on their desegregation demands which have resulted in racial violence and mass arrests.

However, Mayor Floyd Mehan and the Rev. B. Elton Cox, a field representative for the Congress of Racial Equality, disagreed publicly on some provisions of the truce reached Thursday.

The agreement calls for appointment of a permanent human relations commission to work toward a solution of the segregation problem. Mehan said the commission is to be established within 90 days, with a full report of progress to be made at that time.

The truce temporarily ease racial tension.

More Join in Boycott by White Students

By DON MCKEE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Weary policemen braced today for more demonstrations by white students protesting integration of three schools in this industrial city, buffeted by racial turmoil since April.

Several teen-agers who took part in noisy motorcades Thursday said a big rally to boost boycotting of schools was planned at downtown Phillips High.

Students at Phillips and several other still-segregated schools refused Thursday to join in the chanting, yelling and flag-waving demonstrations staged by carloads of teen-agers who roamed the city.

Most of Alabama's 16,000-man National Guard went off federal duty at midnight Thursday. President Kennedy federalized the National Guard to prevent Gov. George C. Wallace from using the soldiers to keep Negroes out of white schools Tuesday.

The Army said Thursday night another 130 guardsmen would be released at midnight tonight in the Mobile area. This will leave only 545 on duty in Birmingham, Tuskegee and Tuscaloosa.

In the wake of spreading student boycotts in Mobile, Tuskegee and Birmingham, Wallace pledged Thursday night in a Baltimore news conference to fight for re-segregated schools in Alabama.

During Thursday's roving demonstrations, three white men were arrested. One of them, Jack Cash, 56, was charged with carrying a pistol without a permit and having a concealed weapon.

Detective Capt. J. M. McDowell said Cash's car contained a straight razor, a meat hook, a pistol, shotgun, cartridges and flares. The officer said Cash also was carrying a derringer.

Vaccination of Calves Decline

Calhood vaccination for Brucellosis in Arkansas dropped an alarming 7 percent last year, reports County Agent Calvin Caldwell. During the same period, the number of cattle increased.

Mr. Caldwell suggests that many cattlemen have been lulled into a false sense of security since the state has attained a Modified Certified Brucellosis Free status.

"This does not mean that Arkansas is free of Bang's disease. Essentially, this status means that the disease problem has been reduced and can be eradicated within a few years. But only if we continue to test and slaughter reactors, and vaccinate all young breeding stock, both dairy and beef herds does this hold true," Mr. Caldwell cautions.

Arkansas can be proud of being the 27th state in becoming a Modified Certified Free area. However, herein lies our greatest danger. Only one of our six adjoining neighboring states has Brucellosis reduced to the same level as Arkansas. These states are a real threat.

Some counties do a better job than others. Benton county vaccinated 2.6 percent more calves the past year, while each of its neighboring counties' vaccination programs declined 10 to 25 percent. The vaccination program in Hempstead county has declined at least 12 percent. Cooperative efforts on communities, counties, and states will be required to eradicate Brucellosis.

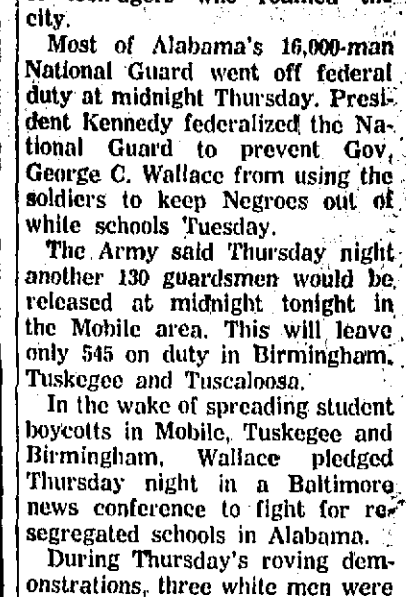

A total of 150 counties in the United States are now Certified Brucellosis Free. New Hampshire remains the only state which has received this status. "If Arkansas is to reach this highly desired level of Brucellosis eradication, we must continue to test and slaughter reactor and vaccinate all female calves kept for breeding stock for several years to come. Contact the Extension office if you have animals that should be calhooed vaccinated," the county agent urges.

Kennedy Gets Strong Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy evidently is receiving strong warnings from U.S. officials in Viet Nam that the anti-Communist war there may be lost unless the Diem government institutes sweeping reforms.

Kennedy told his news conference Thursday that in publicly criticizing the policies of the Vietnamese government during the last two weeks he has actually understated the concern expressed to him by the most experienced American military, diplomatic, aid and other officials in the crisis-ridden Southeast Asian country.

He also said that his own comments about the situation there reflect the views of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge "in a very moderate way."

Ray Turner

Ray Turner of Hope has been appointed to the National Fraternal Committee of Woodmen of the World by President J. Richard Sims.

Turner's appointment is for a two-year term, ending August 31, 1965.

A member of Woodmen Camp 28 of Hope for 24 years, Turner was head consul of Woodmen's Arkansas jurisdiction in 1961 and served as junior past head consul at the Society's National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida earlier this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner have four children.

Whites in Negro School Withdrawn

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two white boys enrolled last Friday in all-Negro John E. Bush Elementary School in Little Rock were withdrawn by their parents Monday and enrolled at a white school.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl William Darnell said Thursday their sons, Carl William Jr., 9, and George Allen, 6 were enrolled in the school through a misunderstanding. Darnell said he had thought Bush was an integrated rather than an all-Negro school.

He said he had enrolled them in Bush as a matter of course since it was the school nearest their home, which is in a Negro section of the city.

Bush is about nine blocks from the Darnell home, while Parham, where the boys are now enrolled, is about 13 blocks.

Darnell, who brought his family to Little Rock from Arlington, Va., about three months ago, said: "I didn't come down here to fight anyone's integration battle."

A third white child enrolled in an all-Negro school last week Steven Pitts, 6, son of Mrs. Y'vonne Pitts, an outspoken integrationist, still is attending the Pulaski County Training School at McAlmont near North Little Rock.

Missionary Has to Make Sacrifices

By BOB HARING

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Being a missionary in Africa requires a lot of sacrifices—such as giving up root beer.

"There's just nowhere to go for root beer in Africa," says Virginia Patterson, 32, a missionary to Nigeria.

On home leave, she said she misses being able to get up and go out in Africa "when I feel like it—like going for a root beer" more than she misses modern plumbing, electricity and appliances common in the United States.

But Miss Patterson is a dedicated missionary, firmly convinced

INHERITED TRAITS

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Do you believe in marriage between first cousins? One is imminent in our family and this worries me, especially since the two most concerned exhibit certain inherited traits (at least they do to my jaundiced eye) which might, if continued, produce offspring with the ruthlessness of buccaneers.

In fact, if the truth were known, we had a couple of rather grim pirates for ancestors. They made innocent people walk the plank. I discovered this when ancestor hunting last spring. I shudder to think of that evil side of our family being not only perpetuated, but strengthened by such a marriage.

—One Who Dug Too Deep

Dear One: The hazards of intermarriage are in direct proportion to the relationship of the man and woman involved; the closer the connection, the greater the risk. I do not believe that first cousins should ever marry but second and third cousins sometimes do—frequently in royal families—without disastrous results. By disastrous results, I mean the offspring of such a union inheriting an extra strong strain of whatever weakness might already exist in one or both sides of the family.

The mysterious and fascinating thing about heredity is that an individual can pass on to the children certain characteristics which he himself shows no sign of. But they may have been very apparent in his parents or grandparents and quite likely to turn up in his children. There's an old wives' saying that children resemble their grandparents more than their parents.

For this reason, if none other, it's the better part of wisdom for a couple of contemplating marriage to know each other's mother and father, and even grandmother and grandfather, if possible. Should a stubborn, selfish streak exist on both sides, chances are that at least one of the children will demonstrate this trait.

On the other hand, you might argue that if undesirable characteristics can be inherited, so can desirable ones. Agreed, but we have no way of influencing nature's determination of which genes are dominant and which recessive. So, it doesn't make sense to reduce our handicap still further by tearing up with someone who shares the same hereditary liabilities.

I don't believe that any geneticist has ever worked out a mathematical ratio for the influences of environment and heredity in an individual, or whether a bent toward piracy is inheritable. But I will go out on a limb and say that I think every human being is made up of one-third environment and two-thirds heredity. Do I hear a dissenting voice?

Dear Helen: I realize that you don't run an employment agency but your advice is so good, maybe you could give me self-help counseling.

It is impossible for me to go out to work yet I must help my husband financially. I can type and own a typewriter. I answered an ad in the paper for people who would address envelopes at home. The only answer I received was a request for five dollars in exchange for the names of firms I could contact. Out of the first $200 I earned I was to send an additional $25.

Our county and most of the surrounding area depends upon water as its source of income so there isn't an over-abundance of office work here for a woman. —A Doer

Dear Doer: There are many ways to earn money at home. The best one for you depends on the economic nature of your community and your own aptitude. Why don't you put an ad in your local paper offering your typing services? Speedy, accurate typing is frequently in demand. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Turn Your Spare Time into Cash," for other ideas.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped,

People May Soon Know Benefactor

BARNEVELD, Wis. (AP) — Southwestern Wisconsin residents who have received anonymous cash gifts, ranging from $80 to $100, wondered today if they are soon to know the identity of their benefactor.

Another $100 gift has been received, and it came a clue—the first since the money began arriving without explanation last month. The gifts have been received by 34 persons, both young and old and in all walks of life. In most cases they came at a time when they would be the most help.

The latest recipient is Mrs. Watson, a widow who is secretary of the Barneveld school. She recently underwent surgery.

She received on Tuesday five $20 bills in an envelope postmarked at 5 p.m. Sunday in near-by Mineral Point. A sheet of paper folded around the money carried the printed inscription, "Silence is golden."

Mrs. Watson's address was printed on the envelope, which also provided the first possible hint of the identity of the sender. "Mrs. Harry L. Madison, Wis.," was printed in the upper left-hand corner.

Mrs. Watson said the partial name was not enough for her to make an identification.

Trying to Get Son Out of Korea

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — An American soldier's father, who lost one appeal to the President to get his son removed from the United Nations Command in Korea, may try to take his case to the U.S. Supreme Court, his attorney said today.

The father, Walter W. Cupples of Concord, N. H., petitioned President Kennedy last month to either remove his son, Robert W. Cupples, 17, from the U.N. Command or discharge him.

Lawyer Arthur J. Bohn, Fort Lauderdale, said he will talk with the elder Cupples about getting Gov. James W. King of New Hampshire interested in the youth's military status. This,

Bohn said, could move the issue directly before the U.S. Supreme Court.

"The governor of New Hampshire will have to make a decision whether to be a party to a lawsuit," the lawyer said. "One of New Hampshire's citizens has been impressed into an alien army."

The final decision on the boy's status would affect thousands of American military personnel, Bohn asserted.

Cupples contended he had given permission for his son to enlist in the U.S. Army and not that of the United Nations. He called the act of placing young Cupples under U.N. control a breach of contract.

of the Committee on Un-American Activities erupted into a swarming, pushing struggle between police and bearded youths, shrieking girls and college students.

Chairs tumbled over, fists flew and a shrill voice shouted: "Fascist, fascist."

No one was arrested nor anyone reported to be seriously hurt.

The third disturbance broke out when an unidentified man tried to speak out at an evening meeting set up by the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba and billed as a reply to House investigation.

"I have a few words to say," he shouted as he leaped up on a platform before a crowd of about 300 at a downtown meeting room.

As members of the audience swarmed around, police surged into the room and escorted the would be speaker and three cohorts down the stairs with the four intruders shouting:

"The Communist party is Jewish. The American Nazi party is the only foe of communism."

"Shut up, you filthy Nazi," a woman screamed over and over as the meeting turned into turmoil.

The worst outbreak during Thursday's congressional hearing came at the end of a long afternoon of testimony by Levi Laub, 25, a New York college student and one of the leaders of the 50 students who spent two months in Cuba this summer in violation of passport rules.

Laub defended civil disobedience as being in the best American tradition. That brought a sharp drumfire of applause from some in the audience.

Rep. Edwin Willis, D-La., chairman of the Committee on Un-American Activities, repeatedly warned the overflow crowd in the big caucus room against demonstrations. Earlier he had police remove half a dozen youths for another long outburst of applause.

Then a youth stood up and started shouting "there is more freedom in Cuba than in Louisiana," and began leading a shout of "racists go home."

Dozens of police moved in and began pushing the ringleaders out of the room. Many were bearded and wore denim work shirts and blue jeans. Some Negroes were among them. Girls screamed as squads of policemen shoved their way through.

After being hustled out of the building, the demonstrators milled about and told newsmen they had been brutally handled by police.

The earlier disturbance ended the same way, with police releasing the youths without charge after shoving them into a nearby room and handcuffing them for 20

VIET NAM: Land of the Long War (I)

Japanese troops enter Indo-China under "joint defense" agreement with Vichy France in 1940 in build-up to Pearl Harbor.

U.S. bombs blast storage tanks on Saigon waterfront in 1945.

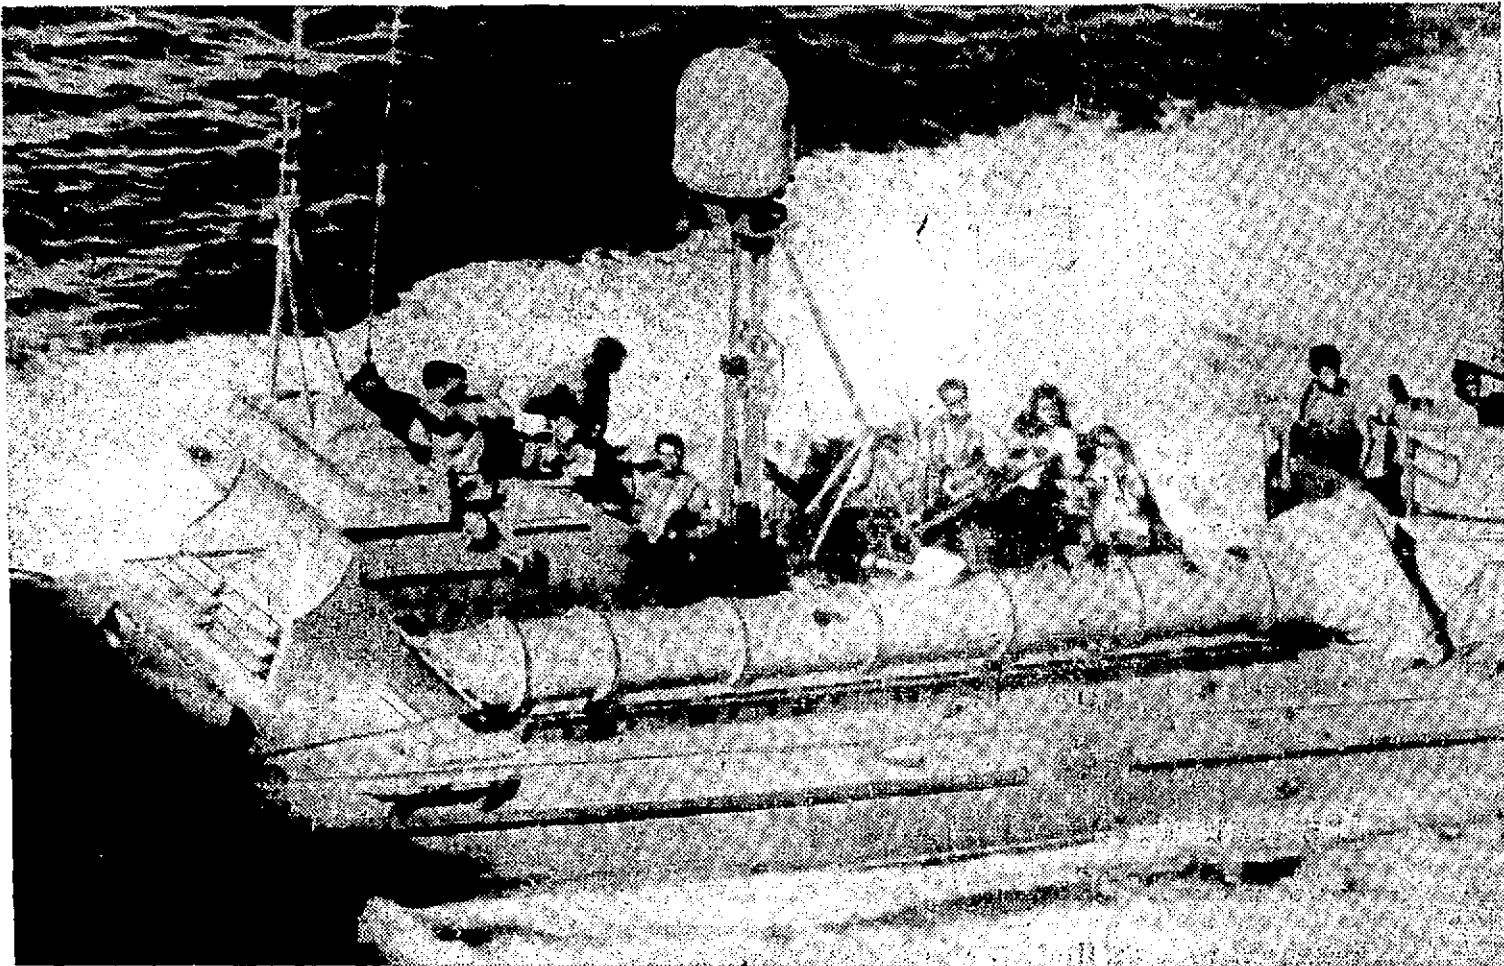

Vietnamese flee into the rice paddies to escape Viet Minh attack in early days of bitter war between the French and the Communists. Reds often burned "unco-operative" villages.

The struggle of the people of Viet Nam for self-determination is rooted in 80 years of French rule as part of Indo-China. Five years of Japanese occupation during World War II broke the pattern of that rule. Eight more years of war and the expenditure of thousands of lives and $11 billion by France could not re-establish it. Nine years of partition, propaganda and bloody guerrilla war since then have brought the nation no closer to peace and unity.

In 1945, the Viet Minh (Independence) League, headed by Communist leader Ho Chi Minh, had ousted Bao Dai, puppet emperor set up by the Japanese. With the end of World War II, French troops returned, and then began the long, unsuccessful fight against the Communists.

CASTRO'S NAVY AT WORK—Photograph taken from a Coast Guard patrol plane shows a Cuban PT boat leaving Anguilla Key carrying some of the 19 Cuban refugees forcibly removed from the British possession in the Bahamas. Intelligence experts claim that Castro, besides using regular navy boats such as this, is building a "fishing fleet" of 200 vessels. Under the guise of peaceful fishing operations, these boats would cut exile escape routes and also approach close to South and Central American coasts to carry on subversive activities. On the other hand, anti-Castro commandos are using armed motorboats to harass Cuban coastal military and industrial installations. In one recent attack, motorboats were lowered over the side of a mother ship to carry out attacks in river estuaries.

Several hundred white students and some adults drove from school to school, waving rebel flags and staging pep-rally type demonstrations in an effort to draw followers from other schools.

They succeeded only at Jones Valley High where about 100 students walked out. At Phillips, Woodlawn, Banks, Ensley and two other segregated schools, the crowd was unsuccessful.

In Mobile, about 300 students walked out and demonstrated for more than an hour. Police arrested 54 students.

Bonds of $100 each were posted for most of the students by Harry D. Hardy, a Citizens Council representative.

Takes to River, Saves Children

BEACON FALLS, Conn. (AP)—The driver had a choice. He could let his 14-ton truck ram a convertible carrying three children or he could drive it into the Naugatuck River.

So Henry D. Murray, 46, of Baltimore, Md., drove into the river Thursday.

His tractor-trailer was heavily damaged, police said, but Murray escaped with cuts and bruises.

"If I hadn't swerved," he said, "I might have killed them all."

A front tire on the convertible driven by Patricia Piceno, 19, of Naugatuck, blew out. The car veered from the right to the left lane of the highway, which parallels the river, just as Murray was passing.

25 Pound Trout

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Game and Fish Commission says a state record German Trout was caught Monday by Tommy Gully of Bull Shoals. The fish weighed 25 pounds and was 37 inches long. It was caught in the Wildcat Shoals area of the White River. The old record was a 17 pound 12 ounce fish caught in 1962.

Some Facts of Life in Arkansas

By J. C. TILLMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
A Jonesboro lecturer and author, Charles Stuck, has invented a standard of measurement that may be useful to somebody.

Taking what he terms the basis of all measurements—the smidgin (a quantity that approaches zero as a limit)—his standard goes like this:

- 3 smidgins equal one tinch;
- 4 tinches equal one little bit;
- 4 little bits equal one middle amount;
- 3 middle amounts equal one right smart;
- 5 right smart's equal one whole heap;
- 4 whole heaps equal one heck-of-a-sight.

Stuck says the whole system can be used to measure anything from onions to real estate.

Told in Batesville, but not necessarily about a Batesville boy: A youth who had perennial problems with prepositions was sick in bed.

His father came upstairs and sat by him to entertain him.

Said the boy, "Why did you bring that book that I didn't want to be read to out of up for?"

And related in the Batesville Gaurd:

The White House was jolted by a movie ad for the film, "PT-109," concerning the exploits of John Kennedy during World War II, seen in a Thomasville, Ga. newspaper: "See the Japs Almost Get JFK."

S. Carolina University Integrates

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Three Negroes were to attend classes at the University of South Carolina today for the first time in 86 years.

The university was integrated quietly Wednesday with the registration of coed Henri Monteith, 18, of Columbia, Robert G. Anderson, 20, of Greenville and James Solomon 33, of Sumter.

Negroes last attended the university in 1877 during the reconstruction period after the Civil war.

About 100 students watched from various parts on the campus as the three Negroes picked up registration papers, visited with deans and paid their fees.

City and state police reinforced campus officers, but they were not needed.

Miss Monteith and Anderson ended their first day on campus with dinner at a student cafeteria. White students sat with them and spoke to them. Several paused at Anderson's table to shake his hand.

The university is the second state-supported white college in South Carolina to be integrated. Clemson College admitted Harvey B. Gantt of Charleston in January.

That Breakfast Proved Downfall

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—City Patrolman James Mallette accepted when ex-convict Carl Wesley Brown offered to buy the policeman's breakfast.

But Mallette later told his superiors of the big roll of money Brown was carrying. This led to an investigation which led to the arrest of Brown in connection with the $500 burglary of a gas station owned by his brother-in-law.

minutes.

Laub pleaded the Fifth Amendment scores of times and touched off the first demonstration when he declined to be an "informant" against anyone else.

The leadoff witness was Barry Hoffman, 26, a Boston real estate man who went along on the Cuban trip after telling the FBI and Central Intelligence Agency he would be glad to report to them about it.

Hoffman said the group was no ordinary one. "Ordinary American students do not defy their government and do not travel to Cuba in violation of the law." Neither do ordinary American students cheer Mao Tse-tung and applaud the shooting down of an American helicopter in Viet Nam when they see it in a movie, Hoffman said.

the views of the majority of Alabamians who, I think are not for desegregation, but, nevertheless, met their responsibilities under the law."

He also mentioned school desegregation in South Carolina, Florida and Georgia, and said it added up to "an impressive story."

Politically, he said "I don't know what 1964 is going to bring" but "I think a division upon racial lines would be unfortunate."

"Over the long run we are going to have a mix. This will be true racially, socially, ethnically, geographically, and that is really, finally the best way."

He said in reply to another question he is not considering a stronger executive order aimed at eliminating discrimination in housing.

On other subjects: TREATY: President Kennedy's voice took on an edge when he rejected the arguments of opponents. "We can't turn our back and tell 90 nations that now they have signed it that the lid is off the pot and everyone now should begin to test in the atmosphere which, of course, everybody would have to do if this treaty fails."

VIET NAM: "We want the war to be won, the Communists to be contained and the Americans to go home. That is our policy."

ROCKEFELLER: With a big grin, and tongue obviously in cheek, Kennedy said he was prepared to accept the blame for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's recent withdrawal of a 1962 campaign pledge not to increase taxes in New York.

GOLDWATER: The President also drew laughter when he said he was not yet ready to comment extensively on attacks by Sen. Barry Goldwater, a possible Republican candidate to oppose him in next year's presidential election. But Kennedy was serious in denying there were any secret commitments made to obtain the test ban treaty, as a questioner said had been hinted by Goldwater.

CUBA: Kennedy rejected as "dangerous" and "incendiary" any suggestions for a military invasion of Cuba.

PAKISTAN: Kennedy said he did not think Pakistan would make an alliance with Communist China in retaliation for U. S. aid to India.

Dispute Spots Long Road to Disarmament

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The dispute about the nuclear test ban treaty, even though the Senate seems certain to approve it, gives a priceless insight into how far off world disarmament is.

President Kennedy and his advisors — diplomatic, military and scientific — all think it is to this country's interest to agree to a limited test ban with Russia. But others, in and out of Congress, have doubts and forebodings.

The doubters persist in their misgivings about the treaty, which prohibits testing in the atmosphere, outer space and under water but permits it underground — despite assurances given the Senate by:

1. Secretary of State Dean Rusk — that the United States could detect at once any Russian try at cheating.
2. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara — that the United States is, and will remain, superior to Russia in nuclear weapons, even under a test ban.
3. Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission — that any risks to this country under the treaty would be "minor."

All this is not assurance enough for the troubled ones.

They express suspicions and fears that the Russians somehow, some way, can use the ban to American disadvantage.

Not long ago in this country there was widespread contempt for Russian abilities. That attitude, never valid, has disintegrated in just 14 years under three great shocks.

1949—When the Russians exploded their first atomic bomb; 1953—When they exploded their first hydrogen bomb just one year after this country did; 1957—When they sent the first satellite, Sputnik, around the earth.

Some of the misgivings about the test ban treaty now may be attributed to a reverse psychology. Not only fear of Russian ability but even an inferiority about it.

For instance fear that the Russians are so clever they can hoodwink this country and surge ahead in nuclear weapons even though under the same limitation the treaty would put on this country.

Carry this attitude one more

Jackson Favors Test Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson came out today in favor of the limited nuclear test ban treaty, saying its risks are serious but acceptable.

The Washington Democrat, who served as President Kennedy's Democratic national chairman during the 1960 presidential campaign, had been generally regarded as one of the treaty's principal critics.

In his announcement today, Jackson said he was compelled to conclude from the evidence that the agreement involves "serious — perhaps even formidable — military and technical disadvantages."

But he added that with assured safeguards for the nation's security, "I believe that the Senate may prudently give its advice and consent to ratification."

Jackson's removal of himself from the doubtful list enhanced the chances for ratification of the pact by a substantial margin over the necessary two-thirds majority.

Justice Building Commission Named

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus named the members of the reorganized Justice Building Commission Thursday.

M. S. McCord of North Little Rock, who served on the first commission, was named to the new one, along with George F. Hartje of Conway, D. A. Clark of McGehee, Joe Melton Jr. of Lonoke, W. S. Mitchell and Harry Crow, both of Little Rock.

Desha County Sheriff Robert S. Moore was named to the Capitol Grounds Commission.

step: While cheating under the treaty could be detected, as Rusk said, since devices could record an atmospheric blast, any cheating under a disarmament agreement would be far harder to spot.

It therefore follows from the misgivings about the test ban that if this country ever undertook a disarmament agreement with Russia shudders of doubt would shake the United States and perhaps make such an agreement impossible.

For this reason any hope of world disarmament in the foreseeable future looks like a pipe-dream. But the alternative to disarmament is continuing armament.

In short this country and the world, despite the limited test ban treaty which has been called a first possible step toward better understandings, seem headed for an arms race.

Highlights in Today's History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Friday, Sept. 13, the 256th day of 1963. There are 109 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1814 Francis Scott Key wrote the words of "The Star Spangled Banner" while being detained aboard a British fleet unit engaged in the bombardment of Fort M'Henry. The song did not become the U.S. national anthem until March 3, 1931 when it was so designated by an act of Congress.

On this date In 1788, the Constitutional Convention authorized the first election in the United States.

In 1847, U.S. troops captured the fortress of Chapultepec, Mexico.

In 1905, the Japanese warship Mikasa exploded and sank with the loss of 599 lives.

In 1943, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was elected president of China.

In 1949, a $200,000 fire destroyed 300 feet of the million dollar pier in Atlantic City, N.J.

Ten years ago . . . Communist China rejected United Nations' proposals for a political conference on Korean problems.

Five years ago . . . President Eisenhower called on Soviet Premier Khrushchev to restrain Red China from further military operations in the Taiwan Strait and to negotiate peaceful settlement of the issues involved.

One year ago . . . Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett declared that the state's public officials should be willing to go to jail for the cause of racial segregation.

Thinks Highly of the Roots of Freedom

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Sometimes, numbed perhaps by overuses of cliché comedy and trivial plots galloping to a predictable climax, we forget that television can be pure enlightenment.

Wednesday night, in, premier broadcast of a new CBS series, the Roots of Freedom, the television became a magic carpet, flying us through time and space back 2,400 years to a Greek hillside where the theater was born.

With Alfred Lunt as guide and entertaining lecturer and Lynn Fontanne helping out, the living audiences were actually seated in the ruins of the theater of Dionysus. There on the old broken stones, a cast of talented performers, including Miss Fontanne, Alfred Drake and Donald Madden, enacted short scenes from great plays which were milestones in theater development.

First, to illustrate the very earliest Greek theme—a man against the gods—there was a portion from Aeschylus' "Prometheus Bound." Sophocles' "Antigone" came next to show a more sophisticated concern for man's struggle against man. And finally, after Miss Fontanne had admonished parents to ship the children off to bed came a morally risqué comedy scene from Aristophanes' "Lysistrata," obviously the father of all bedroom farce.

It was an absorbing adult hour and proved incidentally that an educational program doesn't have to be dull.

Phil Silvers was the guest star on Monday night's CBS "I've Got a Secret." He mentioned, incidentally, his new CBS series, "The Phil Silvers Show" and its premiere date.

Gary Lockwood was a guest on Wednesday morning's NBC "Today" show. He mentioned, incidentally, his new NBC series, "The Lieutenant," and its premiere date.

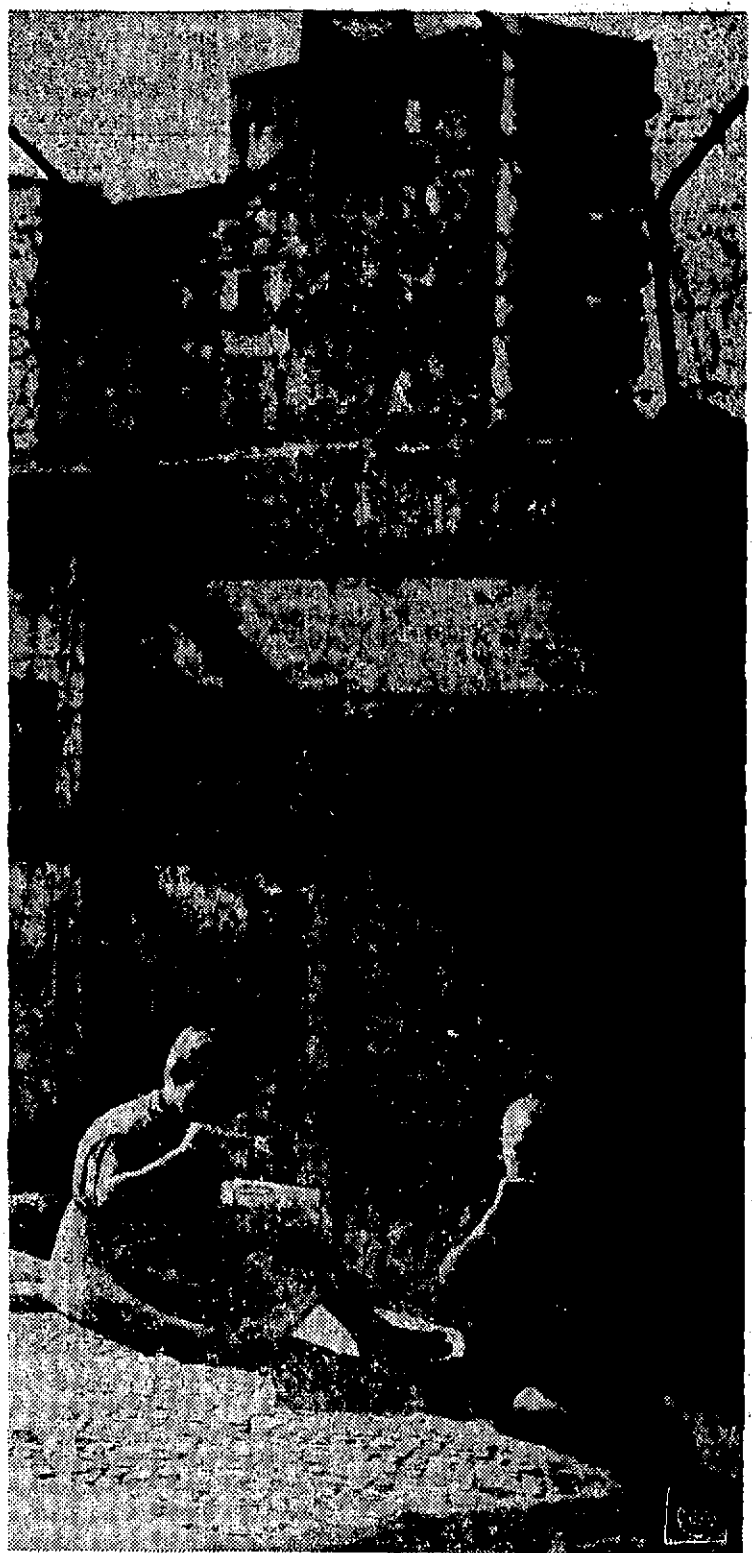

It's going to be "Sophia Loren in Rome" after October's "Elizabeth Taylor in London," but although the projected special has a sponsor, it has not yet settled on a network. ABC has nailed Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, the controversial sister-in-law of the president of South Viet Nam, for her initial American television appearance—on a Sunday "Issues and Answers" in October. The big new change in "College Bowl" when it moves from CBS to NBC Sept. 22 will be the addition of color.

Tito to Visit Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Tito of Communist Yugoslavia will make an informal visit to Washington confer with President Kennedy on Oct. 17, the White House announced today.

The announcement of plans for Tito's first visit with an American president since 1960—when he got together with former President Dwight Eisenhower in New York—said the talks will involve "a full exchange of views on a number of matters of interest to both countries."

Tito will stop in Washington en route to the United Nations General Assembly meeting in New York. The Washington stopover will follow a tour of Latin Amer-

ONE SIDE OF THE WALL—Sitting in the shadow of the Communist-built wall dividing East and West Berlin, these West Berlin children are unconcerned about the political implications of the concrete blocks and barbed wire towering over them. Built two years ago, the wall has become the symbol of a divided world. No one can predict how many more years it will stay up. For growing children, it seems as if the wall has always been there.

E. Germans Show Signs of Revolt

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP)—Dissatisfaction of the East German people with the Communist regime continues to be widespread, but after a week behind the iron curtain this reporter found no evidence that a new revolt is brewing.

The morale of the people, despite tough political pressures and scarcity of certain essential food items, seemed higher than it was seven months ago when I last visited East Germany.

Because of the unusually severe winter and its resulting serious fuel and food shortages, the people's mood then was explosive.

But East Germany since has had a good harvest and there certainly are no shortages of such staples as bread and potatoes.

On the other hand, butter continues to be expensive and short in supply—one half pound being allotted per person every 10 days.

Fresh meat also is scarce but all kinds of sausage were abundantly available.

While complaints about food and other consumer goods have decreased since last winter, there is increased bitterness over political pressures.

Factory workers, probably because of the forthcoming general election, are subjected to at least two political meetings a week.

In a conversation with two ranking government officials, this correspondent invited them tongue-in-cheek to a dinner in West Berlin.

Both avoided saying that the red wall dividing the city would prevent them.

Instead, one answered this way: "I really have no desire to come to West Berlin. I get enough money and my wife gets enough money. We have a nice house near a lake and we have a sailboat."

The second official said something similar. Neither one said anything about being convinced Communists.

Even if the climate at this time was such that the people wanted to revolt, the presence of 20 Soviet divisions and thousands of East German police and army troops keeps everyone in line.

Arkansas Named

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert Wolf, a New York native and former Interior Department employee at Russellville, Ark., was named Wednesday as assistant director of the department's Bureau of Land Management. He is to advise the bureau on resource matters, primarily forestry.

The Eisenhower-Tito meeting also coincided with a Tito trip to New York for a General Assembly session. The Yugoslav leader did not visit Washington at that time.

River Work Reported on Schedule

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Board of Directors of the Arkansas Basin Association got word Wednesday that the Arkansas River development project is "right on schedule."

"Planning is current and construction is on schedule," Col. Charles D. Maynard, district Army Engineer, told the board at a dinner meeting.

The board met to honor two veteran proponents of Arkansas River development—Clarence F. Byrns, editor emeritus of the Fort Smith Southwest American and Times Record, and D. D. Terry, a former congressman from Little Rock.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus presented plaques citing Terry and Byrns for "outstanding leadership" through the years. Bill Terry of Little Rock accepted the plaque for Terry, who could not attend because of illness.

Byrns and Terry were members of the original interstate committee formed in 1943 to promote development of the river. Faubus said they "dreamed a dream that few men could imagine and now that dream is near reality."

Maynard said that the target date of 1968 for river navigation to Little Rock will be met if the weather continues good and Congress continues to provide needed funds.

Bids will be opened Oct. 29, he said, on a contract for construction of Lock and Dam No. 1 in Southeast Arkansas and bid openings on Lock No. 2 and Dam No. 2 will follow in December and May.

"We have eleven contracts now in progress and we will let seven more during this fiscal year," Maynard said.

The colonel said construction of the Dardanelle Lock and Dam is 45 per cent complete. It will be 66 per cent complete by the end of this fiscal year, he said, and the dam should be closed on schedule next September, creating the first of a series of navigation pools which will open the river to barge traffic.

He said clearing of the Dardanelle reservoir is 90 per cent complete.

Bank stabilization work in the Arkansas district is 56 per cent complete and it will be 66 per cent complete by the end of the fiscal year, he said.

Maynard said Engineers are now occupied with running a series of piling tests at the location of Lock and Dam No. 4 near Pine Bluff to determine the best kind of piling for the job. The testing project has attracted the inter-

Chiang's Son Meets With President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo, eldest son of Nationalist China's President Chiang Kai-shek, said after a meeting with President Kennedy today it would be in the interest est of river construction men in many areas, he said.

Engineers will hold meetings in the river valley, he said, to explain procedures under which land needed for the project will be taken. The first of these is scheduled tonight in De Witt, he said.

"Land acquisition is a hard job," he said. "I think a man's land is one of his most precious possessions. The government will take only as much land as it needs and will pay a fair price for it."

of the free world to prevent Communist China from becoming a nuclear power.

After a 75-minute meeting at the White House, the 33-year-old Chinese Nationalist official told newsmen, "We believe Communist China still has a long way to go before it can become an atomic power."

If and when they do, the Chinese Communist regime will constitute a serious menace, so it will be in the interest of the free world to prevent that day from coming."

Chiang, who is here on a 12-day visit at the invitation of the State Department, described relations between the United States and Nationalist China as "very smooth and satisfactory."

Why Lion Oil Company now offers you a choice of 5 different grades of gasoline at 5 prices

Through no fault of their own, six out of 10 car owners today are buying the wrong grade of gasoline. Now Lion Octane Blending permits you to select the specific grade of gasoline to assure best engine performance in your particular car.

Are you sure you are buying the correct grade of gasoline for your car?

Research tells us that six out of 10 cars are using the wrong grade gasoline. If you buy premium or super-premium, the octane rating may be higher than your engine was designed to use. You are wasting power. You are wasting money. On the other hand, regular or sub-regular may cause engine damage, with knocking and loss of power, if your engine requires a higher octane fuel.

Why did this problem exist? Until now, most car owners could choose between regular and premium only. Two grades do not meet the wide range of octane requirements of almost 60 per cent of the cars on the road today. Four car owners out of 10 buy premium, with octane power their cars can't possibly use. Two buy regular, risking engine damage because their cars need a higher octane gasoline.

Does Lion Octane Blending remedy this situation? Definitely yes! You can now buy precisely the right grade of gasoline for your car at the Lion Oil Dealer's. Lion offers five different grades of Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline at five different prices. Lion Gasoline now comes in regular, in premium and in three grades in between.

How do you know you get precisely the grade to fit your car? Find the year and model of your make of car listed in the Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline chart, compiled by automotive engineers. It tells you by number the best grade for your car. These five grades range from premium 580 through 560, 540, 520 to regular 500. The chart includes all American cars up to seven years old. All older models and most foreign makes use Lion 500. You can get a copy of this chart at your Lion Service Station.

How does Lion Octane Blending work?

The Lion Dealer sets the blend selector dial on the side of the pump to the grade number recommended for your car. The Lion Octane Blending Pump draws two separate fuels from two separate underground tanks. One contains regular gasoline, the other high octane premium. The two fuels are blended to create the precise grade your engine needs.

How can you save money by buying Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline? The lower the grade, the less it costs per gallon. If you have been buying premium (equivalent to Lion Blend 580), and the chart says your car will run efficiently on Lion Blend 520, you can save three cents a gallon every time you buy gasoline. In other words, the lower the octane rating your car needs, the more you save.

Why is Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline a top-quality fuel? Each blend that you get from the Lion Octane Blending Pump is top-quality Lion Gasoline with exclusive Lionite® additive. It contains all the ingredients to prevent pre-ignition knock or ping, keep engine parts free of harmful deposits, and perform trouble-free in all weather conditions.

Lion Octane Blending is the smart new way to buy gasoline, offered only by your Lion Oil Dealer. When you stop at your Lion Oil Dealer's, he'll help you select the correct blend for your car. No more power than your engine can use—and no less than you need. Change to Lion Octane-Blended Gasoline, and keep the change.

Available only where you see the new Lion Octane Blending Pump.

Bobcats Go to Morrilton for 2nd Game

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Writer

Friday the Hope Bobcats journey 154 miles to test their grid ability against that of the Morrilton Devil Dogs. So far, the 3AA team is undefeated. Last week they knocked off 3-A South Fuller 13-7.

The line that average 190, centers around tackle Benny Stoubaugh, 170, and 6'3" 235-pound center Mickey Boyle.

The D. Dogs run from a wing-T offense. This is run for power and comes equipped with pulling guards. Halfbacks Wayne Sroczynski, 165, and Stan Stewart, 155, will share most of the ball carrying duties.

Although Coach Ben Burton was not available for comment, the opinion seems to be that the best idea is to spot Morrilton at least one touchdown because of the length of the trip.

The Bobcats seem to be in better physical and mental condition because of heavy practices this week. There should be no serious injuries to slow them down.

Yanks Could Clinch Flag Race Tonight

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frankie Crosetti, the New York Yankee third base coach, has been wearing Yankee pin stripes since 1932, either as a player or coach.

If the Yanks clinch tonight, and they could, it will be his 22nd pennant winner, including seven as a player and 15 as a coach.

The Yankees took another long stride toward the 1963 pennant—their fourth in a row, 13 in 15 years and 28th overall—with a 5-2 victory over Kansas City Thursday.

Minnesota edged Cleveland 3-2 in 10 innings and Los Angeles blanked Boston 2-0 in the only other American League games scheduled.

In the National League, the leading Los Angeles Dodgers retained a three game margin over St. Louis, beating Pittsburgh 5-3 while the Cardinals won their 15th in 16 games, 8-3 over Chicago. San Francisco bombed the New York Mets 6-0 and Philadelphia beat Houston 4-1 in the only other games scheduled.

The Yankee victory, which came behind Stan Williams, reduced their magic number to two. They'll try to nail it down in Minnesota tonight in the first of a four-game series.

Crosetti, a player-coach in 1947 and 1948, waved home Yogi Berra, another player-coach with the Yanks' first run in the second inning. Berra scoring on a single by Hector Lopez.

John Blanchard hit a two-run homer in the fourth and Berra and Tony Kubek singled in the other New York runs in the fifth and sixth.

Williams, who has won eight, allowed eight hits and walked six, but the A's left 13 men on base. Norm Siebern drove in both Kansas City runs with a single in the fifth.

Minnesota managed to retain mathematical life when Bob Allison hit a bases-loaded sacrifice fly with none out in the bottom of the tenth, breaking a 2-2 tie with Cleveland.

Earlier, Jimmy Hall hit his 32nd homer for the Twins, breaking Ted Williams' American League record for a rookie. The Indians tied it in the ninth on back-to-back homers by Max Alvis and Fred Whitfield.

At Los Angeles, a gathering of only 1,530, the smallest in Angel history, was on hand to watch Don Lee's four-hit shutout of the Red Sox. A double by Albie Pearson was the key hit in the Angels' two-run seventh inning.

Sikes Goes Into the Semifinals

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—It's Charlie Coe vs. Dick Sikes and Deane Beman vs. George Archer in the semifinals today of the U.S. Amateur golf tournament.

Archer, 23, who is studying to be a cowboy at Gilroy, Calif., has won the San Francisco City championship, the Northern California Open and is the Trans-Mississippi champion.

He downed a friend of his, NCAA runner-up John Lotz of San Jose State, 3 and 2, and then spilled NAIA small college champion Steve Spray of Eastern New Mexico U., 1 up, in Thursday's double round.

Beman scrambled to a 1 up, 19-hole decision over Barry Meerdink of Muscatine, Iowa, before routing Cleveland salesman Walter Stahl, 6 and 5, with one-under-par play in the afternoon.

Sikes, 23, Americas, Walker and World cupper, and NCAA champ from Arkansas, sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the last hole to eliminate Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., and fired 14 straight pars in humbling John Owens of Lexington, Ky., 6 and 4 in the quarter-finals.

Coe, the U.S. champion in 1949 and 1958 had a couple of breezes—8 and 7 over Jimmy Thompson of the University of Texas, and 6 and 4 over Dick Guardiola of Cleveland.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten horses will clash Saturday on the Atlantic City grass course in one of the year's biggest thoroughbred attractions—the invitational $123,000 United Nations Handicap.

Carry back, at 127 pounds, is the shakily 2-1 favorite in the 1 1/4 mile grind.

Crimson Satan, winner of five major 963 stakes and runnerup to Kelso in the Aqueduct Stakes, is 6-1, with 125 pounds.

Indianapolis Takes Lead

ATLANTA (AP)—Atlanta committed four crucial errors and Indianapolis capitalized on them for a 7-3 triumph Thursday and a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series for the International Tennis Federation's Cup.

Though the over-all units seemed to be jelling, Broyles apparently is staying off some decisions to the last minute—including the decision on Hales.

B Team in Win, Juniors Defeated

Hope's B team, playing its first game of the season, knocked off the Bradley Bears 12 to 6 there last night.

May scored the first Hope tally in the opening quarter with an 18 yard run. Bradley tied it up in the second period but an eight yard run by Sam Strong in the final period won for the locals.

On the local scene the Hope Juniors, also playing their first game of the season, entertained Prescott but the visitors walked away with a 14-7 decision.

Hales, Tockett To Miss Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Coach Frank Broyles said Thursday that guard Mike Hales and tackle Buddy Tockett would not play for Arkansas against Oklahoma State University in Little Rock Sept. 2.

Broyles indicated Hales may be out for the year. He declined to say whether Hales would be red-shirted, but remarked:

"We're not counting on him."

The stand-out junior guard injured his knee at Little Rock a few days before fall practice began, and has not recovered. He attempted to begin practice, but the knee failed him repeatedly.

Though the over-all units seemed to be jelling, Broyles apparently is staying off some decisions to the last minute—including the decision on Hales.

Roseboro Saves Dodgers From Losing Ground

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

John Roseboro hit a grand slam homer and a run scoring single to produce all the runs in a 5-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night that maintained the Los Angeles Dodgers' three-game grip on the National League lead.

The second-place St. Louis Cardinals won their sixth consecutive game and 15th in the last 16 by blending the pitching of Ernie Broglio and the slugging of Bill White and Stan Musial for an 8-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

In the only other NL games Thursday, San Francisco's Juan Marichal four-hit the New York Mets 6-0, and Philadelphia defeated Houston 4-1.

The American League leading New York Yankees defeated Kansas City 5-2, the Minnesota Twins edged Cleveland 3-2 in 10 innings and the Los Angeles Angels blanked Boston 2-0 in the only games scheduled.

Roseboro, 30, a left-handed swinging catcher, is hitting only .245 with nine homers and 48 runs batted in. But he supplied the power early against the Pirates, getting his grand slam off Bob Friend, 16-15, in the first inning.

The Pirates could manage only four hits off Johnny Podres, 13-10, through seven innings. When they started to connect in the eighth, Ron Perranoski preserved the victory in his 61st relief appearance.

Broglio brought his record to 16-8 with an eight-hitter, but missed an opportunity to provide the Cardinal staff with its fourth straight shutout. Doubles by Ellis Burton and Ken Hubbs in the seventh inning snapped a string of 36 scoreless innings by St. Louis pitchers, then John Boccabella and Jim Schaffer homered in the ninth for the Cubs.

Marichal, who hit his first major league homer, also got home run support from Felipe Alou and Ed Bailey. Marichal brought his record to 22-8 with the victory and struck out 13 Mets.

Ray Culp, 13-11, set the Colts down on five hits while Roy Sievers and Tony Taylor hit homers for the Phillies.

Mrs. Nhu Says President Is Misinformed

By BORIS BOSKOVIC
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)

Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu says President Kennedy "is misinformed about the situation in Viet Nam and the solution should be to get better information."

"He is a politician and when he hears loud opposition he tries to appease it somehow," the petite, powerful first lady of South Viet Nam said on her arrival in Belgrade Wednesday.

That was her reaction when reporters asked her to comment on the concern voiced by Kennedy about the Buddhist situation in South Viet Nam.

Mrs. Nhu, 38, sister-in-law of President Ngo Dinh Diem also had a few words for Pope Paul VI. He also has expressed concern for the plight of the Buddhists. The South Vietnamese government has used strongarm methods in stamping out Buddhist demonstrations for more religious freedom.

She said the pontiff, although not misinformed, "gets easily worried."

Diem, Mrs. Nhu, her husband, the president's younger brother and close adviser, are Catholics. Mrs. Nhu is the official hostess for the bachelor president.

In recent television interviews, Kennedy suggested that certain personnel changes in the Diem government may be advisable to help solve the Buddhist crisis.

Mrs. Nhu declined to comment immediately on Kennedy's suggestion for personnel changes.

"We will wait for more details of the statement," she said. "If we can satisfy him, we will do so."

Mrs. Nhu is head of South Viet Nam's delegation to the 52nd session of the Interparliamentary Union which opened an eight-day meeting today. She plans to address the conference on what she described as the true picture of the situation in South Viet Nam.

Fifty-nine countries, including the United States, are attending the conference, which will discuss issues relating to racial discrimination.

George Walker, the No. 1 wing-back, also is handicapped by a recurring knee injury.

Fine Jump for Man With Only One Leg

By RALPH DIGHTON
CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (AP)

—It was quite a jump.

Sgt. Donald H. Hamblen parachuted only 1,250 feet, from a helicopter into a lake on this Marine training base.

But the leap also brought him from uncertainty into good standing again in one of the toughest branches of the corps—reconnaissance fighters who must operate on land, under water or in the air.

The jump Wednesday was the climax of Hamblen's six-month campaign to prove he's as good as any other man—despite the fact that he has only one leg.

Hamblen's left leg was amputated below the knee after he fell onto 12,000-volt power lines last Sept. 21 in a routine training jump.

After six months in hospitals, Hamblen, 31, decided to fight his way back into his old outfit, the 1st Force Reconnaissance Co. of the 1st Marine Division.

To qualify, Hamblen, with an artificial leg, had to pass rigid tests as a skin diver and prove his endurance on land.

In his final test, Hamblen jumped from a helicopter and manipulated his shroud lines expertly to guide himself down to within 50 yards of a pickup boat.

Grand Jury Is Empaneled

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 21-member federal Grand Jury for the Eastern District of Arkansas was empaneled Wednesday by Judge Gordon E. Young.

United States Atty. Robert D. Smith and his staff presented 42 cases to the jury Wednesday and planned to present 32 more today.

W. M. Apple, a retired Little Rock insurance executive, was appointed jury foreman and A. A. Heuer, a Batesville banker and merchant, was appointed deputy foreman.

Jury members may serve as long as 18 months.

Almost Missed That Hole in One

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. W. B. McFarland of Hornersville, Mo., was heartick when she made a hole in one on the 135-yard fourth hole at Fox Hills Golf Club Thursday.

The rules say one must have witnesses to be credited with a hole in one, and Mrs. McFarland was playing alone.

Then she noticed two men who had just played the hole. They had witnessed her shot from the next tee. They verified the account for club officials.
